

SAINT MARY'S CATHOLIC CHURCH

Ponca City, Oklahoma

October 28, 2018

Dear parishioners,

On Nov. 1st we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints, which is a HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION. During this time, we celebrate all who are in heaven, both known and unknown, and we ask them to pray for us so that we can join their ranks one day. The following is from St. Bernard addressed to his brother monks about the importance of All Saints Day:

From a sermon by Saint Bernard, abbot
Why should our praise and glorification, or even the celebration of this feast day mean anything to the saints? What do they care about earthly honors when their heavenly Father honors them by fulfilling the faithful promise of the Son? What does our commendation mean to them? The saints have no need of honor from us; neither does our devotion add the slightest thing to what is theirs. Clearly, if we venerate their memory, it serves us, not them. But I tell you, when I think of them, I feel myself inflamed by a tremendous yearning.

Calling the saints to mind inspires, or rather arouses in us, above all else, a longing to enjoy their company, so desirable in itself. We long to share in the citizenship of heaven, to dwell with the spirits of the blessed, to join the assembly of patriarchs, the ranks of the prophets, the council of apostles, the great host of martyrs, the noble company of confessors and the choir of virgins. In short, we long to be united in happiness with all the saints. But our dispositions change. The Church of all the first followers of Christ awaits us, but we do nothing about it. The saints want us to be with them, and we are indifferent. The souls of the just await us, and we ignore them.

Come, brothers, let us at length spur ourselves on. We must rise again with Christ, we must seek the world which is above and set our mind on the things of heaven. Let us long for those who are longing for us, hasten to those who are waiting for us, and ask those who look for our coming to intercede for us. We should not only want to be with the saints, we should also hope to possess their happiness. While we desire to be in their company, we must also earnestly seek to share in their glory. Do not imagine that there is anything harmful in such an ambition as this; there is no danger in setting our hearts on such glory.

When we commemorate the saints we are inflamed with another yearning: that Christ our life may also appear to us as he appeared to them and that we may one day share in his glory. Until then we see him, not as he is, but as he became for our sake. He is our head, crowned, not with glory, but with the thorns of our sins. As members of that head, crowned with thorns, we should be ashamed to live in luxury; his purple robes are a mockery rather than an honor. When Christ comes again, his death shall no longer be proclaimed, and we shall know that we also have died, and that our life is hidden with him. The glorious head of the Church will appear and his glorified members will shine in splendor with him, when he forms this lowly body anew into such glory as belongs to himself, its head.

Therefore, we should aim at attaining this glory with a wholehearted and prudent desire. That we may rightly hope and strive for such blessedness, we must above all seek the prayers of the saints. Thus, what is beyond our own powers to obtain will be granted through their intercession.

Have a good week, and be assured of my prayers!

In Christ,

Fr. Carson

NOW is the Time of Mercy and Fr. Michael Gaitley, MIC, is COMING to Oklahoma to explain it:

That's right! This famous Catholic speaker & author of "33 Days to Morning Glory" and "Consoling the Heart of Jesus" is coming to OKC from the National Shrine of the Divine Mercy to explain what the Church means by calling our time the TIME of MERCY, and what we can do about it! Sign up now for Oklahoma's "Mercy & Mary Retreat" featuring Father Michael Gaitley, Nov 9 & 10, 2018, at Christ the King Catholic Church, OKC. Don't wait, spaces are limited, and the price ($49.95) is cut nearly in half. For more information or to register, go to: <https://events.marianmissionaries.org/> or call Marian Missionaries at: (413) 944-8500, Ext 10.

The Surviving Divorce program offers hope, healing, and community to those who have experienced the pain and loneliness of a broken marriage. This 14 week program is for the newly separated and divorced and those still struggling with issues many years later. It will help them answer their questions, restore hope, and begin authentic healing. Classes begin November 8, 2018 and will meet each Thursday at St. Mark the Evangelist in Norman from 6:30 to 8:30 PM in the Youth Room. For more information and to register visit <http://www.saintmarknorman.org/divorce-ministry>.

Beginning November 5th, we as a parish community will be beginning the 33 days to Morning Glory in preparation to Marian Consecration. The 33 day DIY retreat ends on our Parish Feast Day, December 8th for the Immaculate Conception. If you wish to participate on your own we will be ordering books soon so please contact Chris Beck to sign-up for a book order at 580-382-6022.

HOLY LAND ITEMS:

A Christian Group from Bethlehem in the Holy Land is visiting our church on Saturday and Sunday (November 3rd & 4th). They come to us to sell the olive wood carvings and crafts that are hand made by the Christians in the Holy Land. This is their main source of income. We need to support these people by buying their beautiful olive wood carvings and crafts so we can help Christian families stay in the Holy Land.

Pray for the Christians in the Holy Land and support them so we all can do our part to keep our Christian bells ringing in the Holy Land.
